False Report Throws Scare CHANGES IN YALE Into Hearts of Utah Backers

One Day Suspension Is Placed on Travers and Summer for Disobeving Training Rules; Will Undoubtedly Be in Colorado Game

HE feelings of many thousand enthusiasts of the University of Utah football team were eased last night when it was announced that Jack Travers and "Pinkey" Summer of the team had not been declared ineligible to participate in games for the university for the remainder of the season.

A report was circulated yesterday aftermoon that Travers and Summer had broken training rules by not reporting for daily practice and that they were therefore liable to suspension from the team. Travers and Summer did not report yesterday at the same time the other members of the team reported, but, according to Coach Bennion, they showed uplater in the afternoon, ready for practice.

First Offense.

This is the first instance this year that players have not been ready on the dot for practice. Bennion had advised his men of the seriousness of breaking training rules and for that reason he was inclined to deal strictly with the two men who did not show up on time yesterday. Bennion ordered the two men to turn in their suits for the day, which order was the basis for the extensive rumors which apread over the town last night that Travers and Summer would be kept out of the Boulder game next Saturday. In explanation of the matter last night, however, Bennion said:

My policy to have my players ob-

My policy to have my players ob-serve all training rules strictly led me to make my decision yesterday, and I also made it as a warning to other members of the squad to keep in conformance with the rules. I am led to believe, however, that the ab-sence of the boys from practice yes-terday was not entirely their fault. They showed also that their inten-tions for the best interests of the learn and school were good by reporting, even though it were too late to appear in uniform.

Deals Lightly.

For this reason I am dealing lightly with the men and I hope It will be a lesson to them and to others of the squad not to break training rules. The matter is now in the hands of the faculty athletic committee and I for one day only as final.

Fred Stack was declared ineligible by the faculty committee yesterday on account of studies, and will be unable to play on the team. Stack came out to Utah last year with a reputation as a football player and, as captain of last year's freshman team, made good. He was not out for practice this year until a week ago. He was tried out at end and his tackling ability soon won for him the recognition of the coaches. He was played regularly at the position and made good. The coaches were depending upon him to strengthen materially the defense of the team. The decision of the committee, however, is final. By International News Service NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3 .- While it is still a certainty that there will be some immediate changes in the Yale eleven the shifts have been deferred till tomorrow. The delay has been caused by the decision of the coaches not to order many of the regulars into today's practice. In fact, none of the varsity first or second string players serimmaged. A few who played Saturday were in a signal lineup, which occupied half an hour of the coaches' time.

Captain Ketcham did not don a uniform, but remained in his room. He played himself to a standstill Saturday and was given a day off. The only scrimmage of the afternoon was between scrub elevens. Hai Pumpelly was in uniform today and practiced goal kicking, but limped and is clearly out of the competition as fullback regular.

Light Work for Crimson.

Tractice Lively.

The practice yesterday afternoon was especially spirited and snappy. The fellows went through their new plays in great shape and got the new signal down right. After the practice, the fellows were given a rubdown and a big feed at the training table, after which they went through a long blackboard drill.

This drill does much to impress upon the minds of the fellows just how the intricate plays should be handled. It will be of big advantage. The fellows struck up a keen rivairy in answering questions, and Coaches Bennion and Nelly are convinced that before the end of the week this training will prove most valuable.

Varsity vs. Freehies. By International News Service. CAMBRIDGE, Mass. Nov. 2.—Only the lightest kind of work was indulged in by the Harvard squad today, as Coach Donovan wanted them rested up after Saturday's game with Cornell. The second team used Princeton plays entirely in the dummy scrimmage and the varsity was taught how to meet them successfully.

O'Brien and Hitchcock returned to the game today, but Mahan is still in the infirmary and Trumbull, who was hurt in Saturday's game, is also in the infirmary. It is doubtful whether either of these men will be able to play on Saturday. The success of the Harvard team in the Princeton game will depend a whole lot on whether or not these two men can play. Both are important in their respective places. This afternoon the varsity will play the freshmen. The freshies are in good trim and eager to get into the game again after their vacation of last week. The varsity will attempt to pull a lot of their newly-learned plays on the under-classmen and will also get a chance to see how good the new defense will be sgainst the shift formations. The two teams have practiced apart from one another during the last couple of weeks, so that neither will know the signals of

Two-hour Drill. By International News Service.

By International News Service.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 3.—A two-hour signal drill with no scrimmage was the Tiger menu this afternoon. Most of the attention of the coaches was given to the punting. Law, Borden and Baker were sent through a long practice in this line. Borden began kicking only a few days ago and is already showing improvement. When allowed to take his time he averaged forty-eight yards, De-Witt is teaching his famous snap kick that played havoc with opposing backs in 1912. Law kicked well, averaging fifty yards. He and Borden alternated at right half in the signal drill.

Merritt, the big Tiger back, has been obliged to leave college on account of illness in his family and will not be back in time for the Harvard game.

Injuries Are Slight The spirit among the student body in general at the university is better than it has been before this year. Crowds are out each night to watch the practice. The fellows are receiving every encouragement, and with two weeks of hard work they will go into the game with a better spirit than characterized their work in the Golden game.

Injuries Are Slight.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 1.—Nebraska caches and trainers were congratulating hemselves today that the players in Saturday's game at Ames came through a hard battle without serious injury. Quar-terback Towle is the only man to show marks of the battle, but he was able to be out today and will continue in his regular place.

The practice this week and next is with an eye to the game with Kansas November 15, next Saturday's battle with Nebraska Wesleyans being regarded as a stiff practice session. Captain Purdy, who has been out of the game since the engagement with the Haskell Indians, is recovering and may join the drilling squad any day. He will in any event be ready for the Kansas game.

Coach Is Approved.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 3.—"Coach Williams is giving entire satisfaction," declared President George E. Vincent of the University of Minnesota last night, adding that Williams's contract had two years to run. President Vincent's remarks were prompted by dispatches reling of the action of the Northern Minnesota Alumni association at Duluth last week attacking Dr. R. L. Williams, football coach of the university, for his failure to place winning teams in the field. President Vincent, who is visiting in this city, said there was no prospect that Gilmore Doble, coach at the University of Washington and a former Minnesota star, would be asked to take charge of the Minnesota team.

"Beat Dartmouth," Slogan.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—"Beat Dartmouth" was the cry of the University of Pennsylvania football warriors as they started preparations on Franklin field today for the game with the green mountain eleven here next Saturday. The Quakers came out of the Penn State game in good shape.

Aithough the backfield squad was given only the lightest drill, the linemen put in their full portion of hard work. For nearly an hour the varsity forwards battled with the scrubs, who were using Dartmouth formations, and the showing of the regulars was more than satisfactory to the coaches.

Six Men Out.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—With six of his backfield men on the hospital list, Coach Grady of Northwestern university football team takes a gloomy view of the prospects of a favorable showing against Chicago next Saturday.

One of the linemen probably will be called on to fill the vacancy at fullback, caused by the injuries to Gruin and Springer. It is doubtful if Sharp and Whiting, balfbacks, will be able to play against Chicago.

Big Squad Out.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—Twenty-five var-sity men were out for practice at the St. Louis university campus this after-noon. The men were given a hard scrim-mage by the second team. None of the regular players was injured in the game with Tulane Saturday. Carroll, who played at quarterback at the beginning of the season, has quit and Thole will take his place.

Practice Punting.

COLUMBIA. Mo. Nov. 2.—The University of Missouri football team had a light workout this afternoon. The varsity lined up against two sets of "scrube" and spent much time in exchanging punts. Two of the regulars, Clay and Gallagher, guards, were not out for practice because of bruises.

Many Are Injured.

Lawrence, Kan., Nov. 3.—Light work marked the afternoon practice of the Kansas university squad on McCook field. The coaches said the poor showing against Oktahoma last Saturday probably was due to overwork.

Soveral of the Kansas squad are on the injured list. The absence of Strother, who is regarded as the best end on the team, was keenly felt in the Oklahoma game, as he was counted on to do most of the kicking.

BARRY IS BANQUETED BY WORCESTER FANS

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 3.—Worcester fans, the old Brookfield band from Comile Mack's home town, and men world famous in the national game, gave a banquet tonight at the Bancroft hotel to Jack Barry, shortstop of the Philadelphia Athletics, who now makes his home in Worcester.

About 350 attended the languet and reception which followed a street parade, which was witnessed by thousands along the line of march, which was lighted with red fire.

Barry was presented with a bronze clock by Worcester fans, also a silver loving cup three feet high.

Among the baseball men present were connie Mack and McInnes of the Athletics. Umpire Tom Connolly, who was an umpire in the world's series, and George Wright, an old-time player. Mrs. Barry was a Worcester girl.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—President Charles W. Murphy of the Chicago Nationals will leave Chicago tomorrow for New York, whence he will sail on Thursday for a pleasure trip through Great Britain. He will not return in time for the National league meeting at New York next month, but the Chicago club will be represented there by Harry Ackerland of Pittsburg, who bought Frank Chance's stock in the club.

CARLISLE TEAM MAY PLAY IN SALT LAKE

Word was received yesterday by Coach Fred Bennion of the University of Utah that the Carlisle Indians intend to make a barnstorming tour of the northwest this winter and that they will probably be in Salt Lake December 20. The information is from the Carlisle school. The Indians are anxious to get a game with the Utah team or one composed of the star players of the state. Games have been arranged with the Universities of Washington and Oregon.

"It is to be hoped that those who go on and control athletics in the future will perpetuate the efforts of those who have labored for the last twenty-five years to divorce the amateur from the professional in the athletic competition and establish a reputation for the A. Mr. Liginger offered as a suggestion that action be taken at the annual meeting of the A. A. U.
